GREAT POPULARITY!
The Sacred Melodeon,
BY A. S. HAYDEN,
HAS uniformly given, so far as the Publishers know, entire satisfaction to all churches and Musical Associations that have used it. Scores of practical teachers have praised the book and have it now in their schools. But the fact that it has reached so many editions, has attained a sale of between One Hundred Thousand and Two Hundred Thousand Copies, and is now in larger demand than ever, has, if anything, can, take the work out of the domain of criticism.
First—The character of the Work. It represents a new and greatly improved system of notation. In it much that is abstruse and difficult in this delightful science, is so simplified that months are made equal to years in the common way of learning the practice of Musical art.
Second—The Quality and Style of Music. Many new pieces, destined to please as long as music lasts, may be found on its pages, and also many of the old and tried melodies, hallowed from association, recollections of sanctified delights, and far more welcome to the heart of the worshipper than others frequently substituted for them.
The mechanical execution of the work is superior altogether to the majority of Eastern Music Books, and the price much lower.
The work may be had of Booksellers in all the principal cities and towns, or may be ordered direct from the Publishers.
Copies for examination, sent post-paid to Teachers, Leaders of Choirs, etc., for seventy-five cents remitted in postage stamps.
Also, Just Published:
ORIGINA: A Complete Hymn and Tune Book for Sabbath Schools. By Wm. H. Bradbury, the popular author of "The Sabbath School Chor." "Sabbath School Melodies," and other Juvenile Music Books; also, author of "The Shawm," "Public," etc., etc.

Obtain Beach's Family Practice, and you will have a physician at your elbow ready to be consulted. The work is bound in substantial leather binding, and may be had from us by mail, post paid, for FOUR DOLLARS in advance, or obtained from Booksellers. THE TRI-WEEKLY YEOMAN.

The True Pastor.
His preaching true, but more his practice
A living sermon of the truth he taught;
For this by rules severe his life he squared,
That all might see the doctrine while he heard.
For priests, he said, are patrons for the rest
(The Gold of Heaven which bears the God in rest.)
But when the precious coin is kept unclean,
The sacrifice is no longer seen.
If they be foul in whom the people trust,
Well may the baser coin be cast the rust.

The Harper's Ferry Affair.
BALTIMORE, Oct. 17.—It is apprehended that the affair at Harper's Ferry is more serious than the people here are willing to believe. The telegraph wires have been cut from Harper's Ferry, and there is no communication beyond Monocacy. It is reported that there has been a stampede of negroes from Maryland. The train due here early this morning had not yet arrived. Many wild rumors are also being circulated, and the authenticity of character has yet been received.

LATER.—The insurgents numbered 200 whites and blacks, and have full possession of the armory, commanded or led by a man named Anderson, who later arrived at Harper's Ferry. The rioters seized a wagon of wheat, loaded it with a quantity of muskets, and sent it on to Virginia. The military of Frederick, Md., are ordered out. President Buchanan has ordered out troops by a special train, now getting ready to convey troops from this city. He has also accepted Senich's company from Frederick, and has ordered companies from Old Point.

LATER, 7 P. M.—A dispatch from Martinsburg, which is situated west of Harper's Ferry, sent via Wheeling and Pittsburgh, has just been received. It confirms the report that the insurgents have taken possession of the arsenal at Harper's Ferry, and adds that the mob has planted cannon at the bridge, and the trains had all been stopped. A body of armed men were getting ready to proceed thither to clear the road. Great excitement existed in the vicinity. The American of this city, has sent a special reporter by the midnight expedition, and some definite intelligence will soon be received. The reporter telegraphs from the Relay House, that the expedition was joined there by 90 marines from Washington, under the command of Colonel Harris, with two four-pound howitzers.

At four o'clock this afternoon, a train, filled with the military, consisting of the Law, Green, City Guards, Shields' Guards, and other companies, left here for Harper's Ferry. Several representatives of the press accompanied them.

STILL LATER—WASHINGTON, 10 P. M.—In view of the possibility of the disturbances at Harper's Ferry extending to this vicinity, the Mayors of Washington and Alexandria have taken precautionary steps for their immediate suppression. The President, through the Mayor of Washington, ordered a strong detachment of the volunteer militia to be posted at the National Hotel, and a company at the armories, which was promptly done. Two hundred stands of muskets and ammunition have also been placed in the City Hall for an emergency.

It has been suggested by well informed persons, that the cause of the insurrection is the reported fact that not long since the contractor for the construction of the government dam at Harper's Ferry absconded, largely indebted to several hundred employees, who have taken this step to indemnify themselves by the seizure of the government funds, which, it was supposed, had been transported here on Saturday.

A gentleman who had just arrived from Harper's Ferry thinks the blacks are only participants in the contest by compulsion.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 18, 3 A. M.—Harper's Ferry has been taken possession of by companies of Charlottesville and Shepherdstown, Va., and Frederick, Md. The rioters are entrenched in the armory, and have taken possession of the arsenal. The insurgents have taken possession of the arsenal. The rioters are entrenched in the armory, and have taken possession of the arsenal.

Col. Shriver, of Frederick, has just had an interview with Brown, in the armory. He asked to be allowed to march out with his men, and avowed his intention of defending himself to the last. His men were very strongly posted in the engine house, and cannot be used against them for fear of injuring the prisoners that they still hold. Some sixteen persons are known to have been killed. Mr. Fountain Breckman, the railroad agent, was shot dead from the armory. Three of the rioters are lying dead under the bridge, having been shot by the Shepherdstown troops in their charge on the bridge.

Capt. Cook is the second in command of the insurgents. He is said to be posted in a school house, four miles distant from here, with a large body of runaway slaves.

The armory was taken possession of about 9 o'clock on Sunday night, and so quietly was it done that the citizens knew nothing of it till the train was stopped. Capt. Brown has been about here, and had rented a farm about four miles distant, which he has used as a rendezvous for the rioters.

Capt. Cook has also lived about here, and at one time taught school. All the other white men are unknown, but are supposed, however, to be men who have been connected with Brown in Kansas.

It is reported, but not confirmed, that the rioters have carried off a considerable amount of the Government funds. No attempt was made to pillage the town or to insult females. Captain Brown claims easy terms on account of his moderation.

HARPER'S FERRY, Oct. 18, 3 A. M.—A conflict on the bridge was fought—mainly the railroad tonnage men from Martinsburg, led by Captain Alberts, a conductor on the railroad, was killed, and conductors Bowman and Hallet wounded. No damage has been done to the railroad or the bridge by the rioters.

It is supposed that the rioters will be tried under martial law as soon as captured, and will be hung on the spot.

6 o'clock, A. M.—The following is a special report received from the editor of the Baltimore American:
"Preparations are now making for an attack on the armory. The soldiers are posted all around the grounds, and for the last hour everything has been quiet."
The rioters have still the following persons in custody as prisoners: Armistead Bill, chief draughtsman at the armory; Ben Mills, master of the armory; John P. Danglefield, paymaster and clerk; Lewis Washington, a farmer and prominent citizen; John Alstadt, a farmer, and his son, sixteen years old; (the three last were seized on their farms, several miles from the Ferry.) Geo. Turner, a graduate of West Point, and one of the most able citizens of this town. He was shot yesterday whilst coming into town. He died during the night. He has a brother living in Baltimore, married into the Patterson family. Three of the rioters are lying dead in the streets, three in the river, and several are said to be lying within the armory inclosure. The following is a list of the killed among the citizens and soldiers: Fountain Breckman, Haywood, a negro porter at the railroad station; Jas. Banley, of Harper's Ferry; Evan Dorsey and George Richardson, of Martinsburg.

hammers, but it resisted all their efforts. A large ladder was then placed and used as a battering ram, and the door finally gave way. The rioters fired briskly, and shot three of the marines who exchanged shots through the partly broken door. The marines then forced their way through the break, and in a few minutes the resistance was at an end. The rioters were brought out amidst the most intense excitement, many of the armed men were seen trying to shoot their Capt. Brown and his son were both shot, the latter is dead and the former dying. He lies in the armory inclosure; he talks freely, and says that he is the old Ossawatimie Brown, whose feats in Kansas had such wide notice. He says that his whole object was to free the slaves, and justify his actions, and says that he had possession of the town, and could have murdered all the people, and have been murdered in return. J. S. Anderson was also shot down in the assault. He was from Connecticut. The dead body of a man shot yesterday was found within the armory. Brown declares that there were none engaged in the plot but those who accompanied him. The prisoners are retained within the armory inclosure.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 18, M.—Nothing is talked of but the insurrection. General Stuart, through Gov. Wise, has communicated orders to General J. W. Watkins, of this city, to prepare to equip and mount at once a body of men for service in the mountains near Harper's Ferry, where many of the insurgents have taken refuge. Troops will leave here this afternoon. Gov. Wise passed the Relay House this morning en route for the city. The military of Frederick, Md., are ordered out. President Buchanan has ordered out troops by a special train, now getting ready to convey troops from this city. He has also accepted Senich's company from Frederick, and has ordered companies from Old Point.

Another rioter, a negro, named Leung, who just died, confessed the particulars of the plot, which, he says, were concocted by Brown, at a fair held in the city some time since. The rioters have just sent out a flag of truce, saying that they are not protected by the soldiers here at present they will hang all they capture.

Truly does the New Orleans Picayune say:
Experience has fully demonstrated that where a man in a commercial community has anything to sell, he must not keep dark about it; he must hold it up in contact with that universal and powerful reflector and illuminator—the public press; he must, paradoxically, light it up with ink—printer's ink; and he must do this not once, or twice, or three times, but persistently, systematically. There is much skill and tact, and oftentimes as much boldness, to be displayed in advertising, as in conducting the most expensive and difficult business operation; and your Louis Napoleon of advertisers will move his forces, now to the front, now to the rear, now on the flanks—sometimes en traillieur, sometimes in solid column—here cautiously, there with impetuosity—"the light of battle on his brow;" while your Francis Joseph will move in the same old routine, rarely capturing public attention, often driven back by his more skillful and daring competitor. To advertise prudently, carefully, and invariably repays the investment an hundred fold. You will find many sensible men who will utter the paradox that they have often advertised, but it has never benefited them an iota. They expect the public to walk into their stores, and holding up their poor, little advertisement, inserted once a month in some out-of-the-way corner of a big newspaper, "why have you come here candleless; you have fish-bones—give me fish-bones!" Egregious error! The main object of advertising is to impress this Mr. Public with an ineffable idea of your name and locality and special occupation; so that if he ever see or hear the one, he will instinctively, impulsively, irresistibly, think of the other.

CHARACTER BETTER THAN CREDIT.—We often hear that we have no means, dolefully contrasting their lot with that of the rich men's sons. Yet the longer we live, the more we are convinced that the old merchant was right, who said to us when he began to live, "Indus'try, my lad, is better than ingots of gold, and character more valuable than credit." We could furnish, if need be, a score of illustrations to prove the truth of his remarks. In all branches of business, in all vocations, character, in the long run, is the best capital. Says poor Richard: "The sound of my hammer at five in the morning, or nine at night, heard by a creditor, makes him easy for six months longer; but if he sees you at a gambling table, or hears your voice at a tavern, when you should be at work, he sends for his money the next day." What is true of the rich man's son, is also true of the young lawyer. Old and sagacious firms will not long continue to give credit for thousands of dollars, when they see the purchaser, if a young man, driving fast horses or lounging in drinking saloons. Clients will not trust their cases to advocates, however brilliant, who frequent the card-table, the wine party, or the race course. It is better, in beginning life, to seek a reputation for industry and probity, than to own houses and lands, if with them you have no character.—U. S. Economist.

MEETING OF THE GRAND LODGE.—The sixtieth anniversary of the Masonic Grand Lodge of Kentucky opened at 3 P. M. yesterday, the Grand Master in the chair. The following grand officers were present: H. Morris, Louisville, Grand Master; H. T. Wilson, Sherburne, D. G. Master; Lewis Landrum, Lancaster, S. G. Warden; B. I. Hinton, Paducah, J. G. Warden; A. G. Hodges, Frankfort, G. Treasurer; J. M. S. McCorkle, Greensburg, G. Secretary.

The roll of delegates exhibited about two hundred, representing as many lodges. (There are 213 lodges in the State.) In addition to these, the following distinguished brethren, who have successfully held the position of Grand Master, were in attendance: Henry Wingate, Thomas Ward, W. B. Allen, Thomas Todd, D. T. Monarrat, Charles Tilden, and Philip Swigert, and some one hundred Past Masters, members of the Grand Lodge.

The scene, at opening, was instructive and imposing. The immense hall of the Temple exhibited the delegates to the best advantage. The prayer of the Grand Chaplain, Rev. Mr. Forsythe, was happily rendered, and all things promised a favorable week.—Lou. Cour.

CURRENT BUSHES.—Farmers usually pay but little attention to small matters, which, if due attention is given them, would more than compensate for all the time bestowed upon them. More healthy or delicious fruit is grown than the current; but a great portion of farmers seem to be unconscious of its value. First, then, to have a good supply of this fruit, attention must be paid to the bushes. It is very often the case, that if these are found at all upon the farmer's premises, they occupy an obscure corner of the garden, close to the fence, and completely bound out by grass; the bushes do not thrive, and produce but a small amount of inferior fruit. But we think they do as well as can be expected under the circumstances, and the farmer should not complain. Our advice is, give the bushes better treatment. Set them in a position that the ground can be worked with a hoe, and manured; keep the earth around the roots well cleared of weeds, and you will have a good quantity of choice fruit, which is a luxury, used as a fruit for sauce or pie, and for making jelly and domestic wine has no equal.

WOMAN'S DEVOTION.—A STRANGE SCENE.—Ten years ago two young men in Mentor, Lake county, got into an affray while under the influence of liquor. A stabbed B with a knife. The wound was a dangerous one, and for several weeks the merest thread bound B to earth. A was arrested, tried, and sentenced to the Penitentiary at Columbus for ten years. B recovered in the penitentiary, and was very anxious to secure A's pardon, but was unsuccessful. The young men had been warm friends up to the night of the affray. They were farmers and near neighbors, and both were married. This morning when A arrived, he found, awaiting him at the depot, his wife, who through all the dreary years of his ignominious absence, had been true as steel, and B and the wife well contented with their lot. He received his sentence. Their meeting was effected in the extreme. Our informant, who knows the parties well, says he never saw so touching a scene, and may never expect to see its like again. The two farmers met each other with great cordiality, and resolved that the demon drink should never again cause them misery. —Cleveland Plain Dealer.

OUTRAGES COMMITTED BY THE VIGILANCE COMMITTEES.—The Franklin (La.) Banner of the 1st instant publishes a communication from two highly respectable citizens of Vermillionville, descriptive of the cruel and barbarous treatment of citizens of that place by the vigilance committees.

Numerous families are said to be in a suffering condition for want of necessities of life by the action of the vigilantes. One man was taken from the side of his dying child—having lost his wife only a week before—his hands tied, but subsequently let off on learning that he was not guilty of any crime. An unoffending boy of fourteen years was dragged and whipped by the vigilantes. Nor was this all. Dr. C. H. Wagner, late a judge of the peace, and corner of the parish, was whipped in a most cruel manner, without having committed the least shadow of an offense, the charge against him being, that upon the oaths of three American citizens, he had ordered the arrest of one of the captains of the vigilantes.

The veneration for Washington in the Boston breast does not reach so far down as the pocket. A subscription-box was put up at the post-office for the monument, and in one week only ten dollars were collected.—Columbus Journal.

Had a subscription-box been put up for the purpose of raising a fund to keep up the agitation of the bigger question it would have been filled. Boston does not venerate anything but silver, and something that is akin.—Dryden (Ohio) Empire.

A SHARP AND CLASSICAL RETORT.—The Banner compares the Democratic leaders to Joseph in Sheridan's "School for Scandal." His brother Charles bears a closer resemblance to the Benner's "School for Scandal" than the Benner's "School for Scandal" than the Benner's "School for Scandal."

SALES OF MULES.—HON. A. G. Talbot, of this county, recently sold to Mr. Geo. James, of Lincoln, about fifty head of fat mules, at $155 per head.

We hear of a sale also by R. M. Robinson, Esq., of Garrett, to R. P. Tolhurst, Esq., of Fayette, of a lot of mules at $175 per head. —Dan. Tribune.

THE NATIONAL HORSE FAIR.—Boston, Oct. 12. At the national horse fair this afternoon Ethan Allen took the first prize of $1,000, in three straight heats. Time, 2:29.3; 2:34 and 2:33. Columbus, Jr., was his only competitor, and took the second prize of $300.

HOUSE AND LOT FOR SALE. I wish to sell my DWELLING HOUSE, situated in the city of Frankfort, owned by Mr. M. S. Coleman. The house is a good one-story frame building, with a large lot. I will also sell a vacant lot. —ISAAC WILLIAMS.

Arrival of the Overland Mail.
St. Louis, Oct. 18.—The overland mail, of the 26th, arrived last night.
The Pacific Railroad Convention adopted resolutions favoring the central route, and appointed committees to mature plans to be recommended to the Legislature and to Congress, and adjourned to meet at Sacramento in January.

The schooner Lewis Perry has arrived from the Amoor river, with Russ-Asian furs to August 12th. A small steamer, capable of ascending the Amoor 2,000 miles, was launched at Nicolaevsk by a company of Americans, who have the privilege of navigating the river. The Russian officials show the greatest favor to American enterprises, and encourage the immigration of American mechanics.

The bark Militia was lost on the Amoor River on the 23d of June. The vessel and cargo were insured in Boston.
Nearly the whole town of Monte Christo was destroyed by fire on the 18th. Loss $32,000.
Another large fire occurred at Diamond Spring, involving a loss of $40,000 and upwards.

Business at San Francisco was dull, and quotations are nominal.
From New York.
NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—An arrival from Buenos Ayres furnishes advice to the 26th of August. The news is not important. The previous report of the appearance of the Argentine confederates at Buenos Ayres, and an exchange of shots with a Buenos Ayres steamer, is confirmed.
A Montevideo letter states that a forgery of 60,000,000 of bonds had been discovered there, and the forger arrested. He proved to be the captain of a Savannah vessel, plying between that port and Rio. The discovery served to unsettle business and create a great run upon the banking house of Scroggs & Mearns.

Mr. Henderson, the British charge d'affaires to Paraguay, had demanded his passports in consequence of the Caranedi affair not having been satisfactorily settled.

IT Hon. Robert Dale Owen's work on Spiritualism is in press and will shortly be published. The New York Herald says: "We have a book-stall pamphlet announcing a forthcoming work, 'of what is usually called the supernatural,' and bearing the ghostly title of 'Footfalls on the Boundary of Another World,' by Robert Dale Owen, formerly member of Congress, and American Minister at Naples." The subject is allied to spiritualism, but is addressed to all the various forms of voluntary spiritual manifestation, instead of those evoked by table turners, rappers, and other mediums. And so another late prominent politician is added to the list of public men who have gone over in the flesh to that world of spirits to which Governor Talmadge, Judge Edwards, and a host of others, have been carried away.

WHEN ARE THEY FINEST?—A wife looks prettier, if she did not know it, in her net morning dress of calico, than in an incongruous pile of finery, which she dignifies with the title of full dress. Many an unmarried female first wins the heart of her future husband in some simple, unpretending attire, if consulted about it, she would pronounce too cheap except for ordinary wear, but which by its accidental suitability to her figure, face, and carriage, idealize her youth wonderfully. If the ex-wife would study taste in dress more, and care less for costliness, they would have no reason to regret it. A foolish and silly woman is not worth marrying, and a sensible man will surely judge you advantageously in exact ratio to the plainness and simplicity of your dress.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.
NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 18.—An arrival furnishes Jamaica dates to the 1st inst. The Legislature will meet on the 1st of November. The island was in a healthy condition. The late disturbances were over. The Demarara authorities were endeavoring to induce white immigrants from the Barbadoes.

The examination of Col. Anderson, Capt. Maury, and other filibusters connected with the recent expedition, has been commenced. No important evidence has yet been elicited.
The weekly report of the Charity Hospital includes fifteen deaths from yellow fever.

IT General Singleton and James B. Clay have made a wager of $4,000, forfeit $2,000, over the progeny of "Silver Heels" and "Membrino Chief," each party to make their selection from the colts of the respective horses, either horse or mare, three years old next spring. "Membrino Chief" was brought out to Kentucky by Mr. Clay. He is a "Messenger" horse, of remarkable size and power, whose mile has been done in 2:32. The wager between these gentlemen contemplate two meetings, the first at Louisville in the spring, and the second at the Abbey, near St. Louis, in the fall.

Iowa and Minnesota Elections.
CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—Forty-seven counties of Iowa give Kirkwood 6,630; Dodge 3,988. Same counties in 1857 gave Lane 2,359 majority. There are 44 counties yet to hear from.

MINNESOTA.—25 counties heard from give 2,716 Republican majority. Seven to hear from gave 846 Republican majority in 1857.
St. Paul advises, of the 15th, say the Republican majority in the State Senate is 7, and in the House 30.

Proclamation by the Governor.

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY,
Executive Department.
Another abundant harvest has been gathered; another year of multiplied blessings is fast drawing to a close. The labors of the farmer, the mechanic, the manufacturer, and the merchant, the professional man, and the man of science, have been abundantly rewarded; commerce has revived, trade has improved, and thrift is apparent everywhere throughout the land. Neither war nor pestilence nor famine has afflicted us. Peace, plenty, and health have blessed a free, prosperous, and happy people. Providence has showered His blessings upon us as individuals, as a State, as a nation. We should return to Him the homage of grateful hearts. In the eager pursuit of pleasure, of fortune, or of fame—in the excitement of our daily occupations—in the multifarious pursuits of life, we are too apt to forget Him from whose bounties come. Acknowledging no sovereign but Him, let us recognize the venerable custom of the Jewish Feast of Weeks appointed by Jehovah for his chosen people." For the establishment of, and preservation then, of our free institutions—for the preservation of our lives and health—for our tranquility, prosperity, and happiness—for our general thrift and the untold blessings we enjoy as a State and a people—

I, BERAH MAGOFFIN, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, do hereby appoint and set apart THURSDAY, the 24th day of November next, as a day of THANKSGIVING AND PRAISE TO ALMIGHTY GOD, and recommend its appropriate observance by all the citizens of the Commonwealth.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the Commonwealth to be affixed. Done at Frankfort, this 14th day of October, A. D. 1859, and in the sixty-eighth year of the Commonwealth.
By the Governor: B. MAGOFFIN.
